WELCOME

Founded in 2004, the New American Youth Ballet is a non-profit organization committed to providing classical ballet training to students of all ages. NAYB is divided into two tracks of study: Community classes and the Training Program. Community classes are open to any child or adult, ages three and up. The Training Program is by audition only. The New American Youth Ballet offers satellite classes at various locations around Fort Wayne including the Imagine Schools.

ENROLLMENT

Admission to the ballet classes at Imagine Schools is open to all students in both elementary school and middle school. Level placement is based on grade.

SCHEDULE

Imagine Schools ballet classes are held in two semesters: Fall and Winter. Each semester includes ten weeks of instruction with a mini performance recital on Saturday of the eleventh week. The classes are held at Imagine Schools and the performance is held at the New American Youth Ballet studios. Classes will be held on Tuesday afternoons with class times subject to change based on enrollment. Please contact ballet instructor Mia Bendele with any questions: mia.bendele@yahoo.com.

PERFORMANCE

A mini performance is held on the eleventh week of each semester. Each class will perform a few classroom exercises and a short dance prepared especially for the event. The performance is held at the New American Youth Ballet studios and is offered free of charge for family and friends. More information will be sent home about the performance during the course of the semester.

FEMALE STUDENT DRESS CODE

We request that female students wear pink tights and a black ballet leotard, however students who are unable to wear this uniform may instead wear comfortable clothing that will allow them to move easily. Pink ballet slippers are required of all students. Female students should also wear long hair pulled off the face in a ballet bun if possible. Please note that students will be required to follow the dress code for the end of session performance, even if they have not been able to wear the prescribed uniform for weekly class. Please contact ballet instructor Mia Bendele with any questions: mia.bendele@yahoo.com.

MALE STUDENT DRESS CODE

We request that male students wear black basketball style athletic shorts, and a white plain t-shirt, however any comfortable clothing will be sufficient. Black or white ballet slippers are required of all students. Please note that students will be required to follow the dress code for the end of session performance, even if they have not been able to wear the prescribed uniform for weekly class. Please contact ballet instructor Mia Bendele with any questions: mia.bendele@yahoo.com

TUITION

Tuition must be paid in full to reserve a spot in the class. Tuition should be paid in cash or by check to the New American Youth Ballet and must be submitted with the enrollment form on the back of this brochure. Tuition is non-refundable.
